

Melinda's Choice™

‘PINK POPPET’ PPAF
PINK POPPET WEIGELA

Picture and information intended as a helpful guide.
010493-1530
Grown for Stejn
Garden and Gifts
Milwaukee, WI 53221.
©2004 NORWOOD
NORWOOD
10000 W. WISCONSIN AVE.
MILWAUKEE, WI 53221
TEL: 414-224-2200
FAX: 414-224-2201

Weigela florida 'Pink Poppet' (PPAF) PINK POPPET WEIGELA

FULL SUN

HEIGHT
2'

SPREAD
2'

ATTRACTS HUMMINGBIRDS

REPEAT BLOOMS

GREAT IN POTS

I find the smaller stature of this Weigela makes it perfect for containers, edging and mass plantings. Pink Poppet has a profusion of soft pink flower clusters that even bloom twice. This neat, dwarf shrub displays trumpet-shaped flowers that attract hummingbirds to the garden, while the dense, spreading foliage attracts birds. Plant as good coverage in the front of shrub borders, rock gardens, or on banks. To shape this shrub, prune gently after it blooms in spring. Apply a 2-3" layer of mulch or organic material to conserve moisture and improve the soil. This slow grower thrives in full sun in well-drained soil. Hardy in Zones 4-8.

Melinda Myers

www.MelindaMyers.com